IGCSE Indonesian as a Foreign Language

Overview

This program is designed for both students with previous experience of learning Bahasa Indonesia and students who are taking it up as a new language. The objective is to develop student's abilities in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, in order to communicate clearly and effectively in different styles and contexts. In analysing the strengths and weaknesses of the student, the mentor will work collaboratively to engage the student in the culture and gain a better understanding of vocabulary and grammatical structures. Students will work towards personal goals over a specific timeline that will be determined with their mentor.
