GOING BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

Our blog-writing students now have access to a global platform, where they can write about any topic they are curious and passionate about. We are so proud to see so many of our students getting published!

DON'T QUARANTINE YOUR LEARNING

With the past few weeks turning grim, Ascend Now sincerely hopes you are staying safe. We are proud our students are using their time wisely. They are well ahead of the learning curve AND enjoying their extracurricular activities. Reach out with any questions on any of our courses.

SHAKING HANDS WITH THE IB DEVI'S INSPIRING INTERVIEW

Ascend Now is officially on the map. We have been recognized by the IB. On March 9th, 2020, Our CEO, Devi Sahny got the opportunity to explain our work at Ascend Now - our focus on how we help students excel in academics, time management and personal development.

We are working with leading international schools in Singapore and Indonesia to do our part. We have hired five more experienced tutors so that each student gets adequate attention. Our students and families are our top priority. We will work tirelessly to see them achieve their goals. We got to show a glimpse of that to the IB this month.
